

One-way system to the harbours during the Boat Festival 2006

- From the A98 turn into Church Street
- Take the 2nd right into Institute Street
- At the junction bear right and take the left-hand fork down the hill on St Combs Road
- Turn left at the bottom into Links Road along the shore; the caravan site will be on your left
- As you pass between the building at the end, the New Harbour is in front of you.
- If your business is at the New Harbour then exit the area uphill along School Hendry Street, at the end turn right into Institute Street and left into Church Street back on to the A98.
- If your business is along Shore Street of the Old Harbour, continue round Shore Street. To exit Shore Street or the Old Harbour, turn up past the right hand side of the Shore Inn and take the left fork up Church Street to the A98

Portsoy Residents

Festival traffic will build up during Thursday and Friday with a peak on Saturday and Sunday morning and evening. The one-way system round the harbours is designed to prevent congestion and we apologise for any inconvenience it may cause. We cannot insist that residents stick to the one-way system but please be aware of the need for heavy traffic to pass, and park only on one side of your road. Thank you.
